

TORONTO CONFERENCE – EDUCATIONAL GRANT APPLICATION

Grants of up to $5,000 are being made available to groups, institutions, or communities of faith within Toronto Conference that are offering educational events that focus on Toronto Conference priorities or that contribute to the understanding of United Church history, current or future challenges, or leadership development.

Conference Priorities (at this time): Right Relations*; Affirming Ministry; Partnership Activities with other denominations with formal relationships to The United Church of Canada. As well, the Conference may choose from time to time to support specific short-term project work (for example when there was a focus on Syrian refugees). The other identified use for the Education Fund is events that contribute to understanding United Church history, current or future challenges, or leadership development.

It is the intention of these grants to encourage the church to think more broadly about the United Church's future, sometimes by learning from its past.

*Note that currently there are a variety of grants for right relations work which can be found separately at <https://torontoconference.ca/forms-directory/#Grant-Applications> or contact Jody Maltby at jmaltby@united-church.ca

These grants are not available to individuals. Conference may contribute to the cost of an event or a study tour, but Conference would not pay for an individual's registration or other fees or participation in the event or trip.
