

Jim McKibbin short bio

Jim McKibbin is a retired communications manager and spokesperson for Statistics Canada and the Canadian Census. He is the former Director of the Toronto Learning Annex. A Pepsi driver for 14 years he served as chair of the provincial Soft Drink Workers Union from 1980-85. He was a commissioner to the 38th, 39th and 40th General Councils and currently works with congregations in collaborative initiatives. He also acts on behalf of the church as an accreditor with outreach ministries.